If you haven't read this excellent series of books by Mark Sennen, do it now, you won't be disappointed. One reviewer did bring me down to earth though: I can relate to all these places as I live here in the West Country but how they ever managed to get a mobile signal near Widdecombe is marvellous because I never have!!

The Write Side Up - (or the blog of author Mark Sennen)

Mark Sennen has also tried his hand at many things, but without a whole lot of success. He is an average drummer, reluctant farmer, a decent programmer, and a failed Ph.D. student. Sennen can also play the tenor ukulele but not very well and he loves sailing. Sennen's favorite crime writer is Graham Hurley, who he finds no one can touch.
