Chickpeas on chickpeas on chickpeas. That's how we do it around here. Who wants some dip? This dip is inspired by my favorite thing ever to order at Mediterranean restaurants: Either falafel (better than restaurant or easy vegan) or shawarma dip. The base is hummus, which I kept easy and used store bought.

In Florida, there are as many varieties of smoked fish dips as there are countries represented at Epcot — probably more.. And it's everywhere — in restaurants, supermarkets, seafood retailers. It would not surprise me at all to see someone selling homemade batches out of a cooler on the side of the road. Some people go with a chunky, vegetable laden version, others pump it up with hot ...

I hate to admit it but I am new to this wonderful world of s'mores. It's not that we don't have marshmallows and graham crackers in the Philippines, but when one would say "graham crackers", I would immediately think about Filipino's refrigerator cake. Another reason is my family didn't really do a lot of camping, which I believe where s'mores are most famous for.

This simple Elote Dip recipe is everything you love about classic Mexican street corn...in an easy 15-minute dip! The very first time we invited our European friends over for Mexican food here in Spain, we made our usual round of tacos, rice, beans, and dips...and totally spiced everyone out. Ha, to our taste, everything was pretty mild.
