The easiest and most obvious answer to the ratings decline is a simple one: The Walking Dead has been on longer than a TV drama would typically run. Its AMC peers, Breaking Bad and Mad Men, both of which are held up as shining examples of TV's Golden Age, ran for five and seven seasons respectively, and that's more in line with the standard viewers might expect.

Review title of SH4D0WSP4RT4N97 They Did It Again. I gave the first season of this series five stars but why does the second season get five stars too? It does something a lot of games do not, it throws you in at the deep end just five minutes into the game, it does not wait for you to feel comfortable, secure and like everything is going to be alright, this season delivers two new things that ...
