The Black Cat is a great, non-touristy spot on Rose Street that is tiny but has an amazing selection and packs a punch well above its weight. The prices are great, too. The only thing I didn't like was that the music is a bit too loud for my taste and it was hard to carry on a conversation over the music.

Black Cat Bar & Grill isn't fancy and it certainly isn't scenic. In fact, it's a little divey, watering hole. They have some A-Okay food for a very reasonable price. Probably a better spot for locals, I ended up at Black Cat with my family over the 4th of July weekend. I split a dinner deal with my dad.
