Community Reviews. Dark Lord of Derkholm is a comical parody of epic fantasy: Fantasyland is overrun by tourists expecting to go on quests and slay this year's Dark Lord: the wizard Derk, who breeds all sorts of magical animals, from sarcastic geese to carnivorous sheep, and has no interest in pretending to be evil.

Dark Lord of Derkholm (Derkholm, #1) by Diana Wynne Jones

The Dark Lord of Derkholm is a fantastic story, it's really funny, too. It starts off with our two heroes, Derk and his son Blade, being introduced; arguing with each other as they will from time to time throughout the book.

The Dark Lord of Derkholm. By: ... The Tour must culminate in the defeat of the Dark Lord, a very undesirable appointment that this year falls on mild-mannered nerd-wizard Derk and his large and opinionated family. Now, the review: I either love DWJ books or find them baffling. This one is completely on the 'love' side; enthralling, full of the ...

Dark Lord of Derkholm is another one of my favorites. I would recommend reading it after HMC or Charmed Life, but that's mostly because it's a bit longer and denser, and it can definitely go either way. It takes place in a fantasy world that is being exploited by tourists from our world, and really, REALLY messes with conventions of the ...
