Daniel Patterson's book "The Codex" is a wild ride from start to finish! A bit implausible at some points, it still keeps the reader enthralled, and rooting for the "good guys"!! Action packed, I found it difficult to put it down. The story is not unlike a Dan Brown adventure, and is equally interesting to the reader.

'The Codex' is another—well, at least in precept. It has nothing to do with Shakespeare except for the idea of a wealthy man making his kids suffer for their inheritance. It's actually a pretty good idea for an action adventure as opposed to a family drama.
