Woman He Loved Before, The by Dorothy Koomson - book review Ever since I read my first Dorothy Koomson book, I have been hooked on this fabulous author. All of her novels are absorbing and thought provoking and examine human relationships so well. I have noticed though, that the content of her later stories are getting slightly darker than her earlier ones.

Like all the other Koomson books, I adored The Woman He Loved Before. Those of you who love the fluffy will hate this book like Victoria Beckham hates complex carbohydrates, but those of you who don't mind stepping into the slightly murkier world of women's fiction, will probably appreciate Koomson's efforts.
