After all, if God is absent there is ultimately no moral accountability and no life after death. So if there is no ultimate accounting for your actions, why not live by pure self-indulgence and gratification if you can get away with it? The consequence of a thoroughly realised atheistic view, is cause enough to worry.

There is no need to debate each person's life perspective because to each his own, literally. We will always be searching, debating, and making opinions about god when we have media, history channels, and people debating the mystery of it. When god is simply life itself, there is no need to debate.
