It's the movie version of the book Thr3e by Ted Dekker. The book is excellent and this film is an attempt to tell the complex story of the book simply. Being a movie, there is less time for the detail which made the book especially clever, but the film does tell the story reasonably well. If you have read the book you will want to see this movie.

Thr3e (2006) - Thr3e (2006) - User Reviews - IMDb

Reading of a young man training in seminary who seems distant from the true Gospel message of salvation and the work of the Holy Spirit in the regeneration of the persona seems quite vague--that I would believe Dekker could have artfully worked in using his talents and still have avoided making this a tract.
