Many conservatives did not see that Trump had framed the 2016 election as a choice between two mutually exclusive regimes: multiculturalism and America. What I call "multiculturalism" includes "identity politics" and "political correctness." If multiculturalism continues to worm its way into the public mind, it will ultimately destroy America.

A whole and balanced self is a reconciliation of all parts, an inner unification. It is not an indulgence of the darker parts of our natures, but an acceptance and direct experience of them in the light of mindful awareness and deep honesty. This is the entire opposite of many self-denying traditional spiritual methods of subduing, denying, or ascetically disciplining the self.

The ego (the identity or sense of self that you carry) is a tricky little bugger. In order to maintain an image of itself, it must sustain and defend anything that challenges its existence. Inevitably, this need to "keep up the image" involves a whole lot of sly self-deception, resistance, subversiveness, and even a blatant avoidance of reality.
