A. The loser is everyone. Scott Reid at the OC Register has a bunch more information this week about the wildly typical and predictable barf-trench that was USAG's attempted hiring of Edward Nyman as its first ever director of sports medicine and science.. The reason for Nyman's firing—that nonspecific "conflict of interest" that USAG flopped out there—was, according to USAG, that ...

Last week I had the opportunity to help a friend build the foundation for a new shed that will be delivered in a couple of weeks. His back yard has a bit of a slope, and it would take too much concrete to pour a slab (read how to pour a concrete shed foundation here). For that reason, we decided that building a post and beam foundation would be the best way to go.
