Recently I wanted a Player of mine who was playing a Wizard to get more into roleplaying his character, since he hadn't played a lot of spellcasters, and so he fell into simple things like "I cast this" without really knowing what it does or how it works.. And over the course of the campaign, it became a bit of an issue for me, as he'd constantly be looking up what his spell does.

The Professional had one of the most emotional endings for a movie cataloged as "Action". Well, at least for me. No grand music, loud explosions, just Leon walking to the exit making us believe he will escape, the slowly approach of Gary Oldman for behind, the exact moment when the bullet enters in Leon's head, from Leon's vantage point, the one liner "This is from Matilda" and the Gary Oldman ...

Power Bars Defined. Feel free to skip this section. Power bars are intended for the big-3 lifts; the bench press, back squat, and deadlift. Due to the high amounts of weight used in these three lifts, and the fact that no one wants a lot of springiness (whip) in the bar when performing these lifts, power bars are designed to be much more rigid and stiff than Olympic WL bars.
