antigonick: I do, yes. Although I absolutely hate Neville's empty and dehumanising love for Percy. Poor Percy, he really is the one victim of The Waves. I'm guessing what you're looking for is idealised love in literature, delusions of purity and perfection—built upon the capricious notion of one's superiority and godliness.

"John Buchan's career as a writer, one of the best-selling of his day, would have been remarkable, even in someone who had done nothing else. He wrote more than a hundred books, including twenty-seven novels, six substantial biographies, a monumental twenty-four-volume contemporary account of the First World War, three works of political philosophy and a legal textbook.
