Santa Cecilia in Trastevere ★ This Trastevere church looks like nothing much... until you pay the nuns to sneak downstairs to see remnants of ancient Rome, or upstairs to see precious frescoes by medieval master Pietro Cavallini . The rather bland, 18th-century interior of this convent church hides the fact that it dates from 820, and contains not only one of the greatest frescoes from late ...

The Birth of the Tie. If we go back four thousand years to ancient Egypt, we can examine the necks of many Pharaohs and notice broad ties adorned with precious stones wrapped around their necks. Archeologists have found what is believed to be a talisman known as the Knot of Isis around the necks of mummies. It is called that way because it resembles a knot used to secure the garments worn by ...
