The Severed Streets is even better than its predecessor, London Falling. The so-called summer of blood, dangerous despite its 'take back' type populist motif, is the perfect backdrop for a race against time to stop an impossible murderer before more is lost than a handful of lives.

Just finishing The Severed Streets- having stumbled on the series through Who Killed Sherlock Holmes- I'm really enjoying the series and it saddens me that future volumes may not appear- for some time at least.
