In prayer, energy is conveyed from point A to point B – point A being the person who is praying, and point B the object of the prayer. The object of the prayer can be a person, a country or a natural disaster. And you can send prayer energy over any distance. Here's an extract from a lecture given by Dr George King:

The Power of Prayer: Prayer is an Energy

Prayer for positive energy: House Clearing Prayer. Using a house clearing prayer is like taking a painkiller for a sore foot instead of removing the nail from your shoe. However, you can always use a prayer to remove negative energy from home on top of these other methods if you wish to be extra diligent.

Prayer for Positive Energy and How to Carry it Out

The Energy of Prayer introduces the reader to several meditation methods that re-envision prayer as an open, inclusive, and accessible practice that helps create healthy lives through the power of awareness and intention. Life's fast pace leaves little room for reflection and attention to the present moment.

How to Deepen Your Spiritual Practice. The Energy of Prayer includes visualization and breathing exercises and concludes with a rich sampling of a broad range of prayers, chants and invocations from the Buddhist tradition.

The Energy of Prayer - Plum Village

The best part of The Energy of Prayer was the section at the end with specific meditations. I particularly loved the prayer/meditation that centered on visualizing yourself and your parents as five-year olds. Having read many other books by Thich Nhat Hanh, I was expecting a little more than what I found in this volume.

The Energy of Christian Prayer. Christian prayer is rooted in the truth that Christ crucified is fully God and fully man. The prayer of the Lord is theandric — the highest expression of the perfect unity of divine and human energy in His Divine Person. Theandric comes from the Greek words for God ( Theos) and for man ( anthropos ).
