CHAPTER 6. The Lost Ax. 1 The guild prophets once said to Elisha: "This place where we live with you is too cramped for us. 2 Let us go to the Jordan, where by getting one beam apiece we can build ourselves a place to live." Elisha said, "Go." 3 One of them requested, "Please agree to accompany your servants." He replied, "Yes, I will come

While William Shakespeare's reputation is based primarily on his plays, he became famous first as a poet. With the partial exception of the Sonnets (1609), quarried since the early 19th century for autobiographical secrets allegedly encoded in them, the nondramatic writings have traditionally been pushed to the margins of the Shakespeare industry.
