The Prisoner's Hope is a Christ-centered ministry reaching out to those incarcerated and their families; serving needs before, during and after incarceration through mentoring and assistance with basic needs to equip for successful re-entry into society.

Matthew 25: 34-40 - The Prisoners Hope

A culture of punishment, combined with race- and class-based animus, has led the United States to rely on incarceration more heavily than any other country in the world does. The politicization of criminal justice policy and a lack of evidence-based assessment result in a one-way ratchet in which law and policy grow ever more punitive. The human and financial costs of mass incarceration are ...

The priest's visit further blurred the line between role-playing and reality. In daily life this man was a real priest, but he had learned to play a stereotyped, programmed role so well – talking in a certain way, folding his hands in a prescribed manner – that he seemed more like a movie version of a priest than a real priest, thereby adding to the uncertainty we were all feeling about ...

Certainly, Shawna deserves as much time in print as Jason Bush. He was interviewed by Smith in July 2009. Smith reported Bush claimed to have NOT confessed to the Arivaca killings! Smith indicates that she pulled the jail's weekly reports on Forde's behavior, noting Shawna was written up by the zealous jailers for "extremely petty" incidents.

Justice for Shawna Forde

There is a very difference between a social mask you can choose or choose not to wear with little to no consequences and that can be taken off in private and, as the piece described, a mask worn to preserve life and safety that cannot ever be removed without risk of harm.
