Asking questions (link to Learning counseling and problem-solving skills by Leslie E. Borck, Stephen B. Fawcett) - open and closed - is an important tool in the counseling kit.They can help a person open up or close them down. An open question is one that is used in order to gathering lots of information - you ask it with the intent of getting a long answer.

Asking Questions - Basic Counseling Skills

A question is an utterance which typically functions as a request for information. Questions can thus be understood as a kind of illocutionary act in the field of pragmatics or as special kinds of propositions in frameworks of formal semantics such as alternative semantics or inquisitive semantics.The information requested is expected to be provided in the form of an answer.

Question: "Is God man-made? Did man create the idea of God?" Answer: Some people argue that God is man-made; that is, the concept of God is merely a human fabrication handed down through the generations from those who didn't know any better. They claim that the idea of a God or gods is simply the way human beings explain things that are too difficult to understand.
