Hunting is the practice of killing or trapping animals, or pursuing or tracking them with the intent of doing so. Hunting wildlife or feral animals is most commonly done by humans for food, recreation, to remove predators that can be dangerous to humans or domestic animals, or for trade. Lawful hunting is distinguished from poaching, which is the illegal killing, trapping or capture of the ...

Colour Scheme. Also called The Return of the Hunters, this Bruegel oil painting - which is, incidentally the world's most popular classical Christmas card design - evokes the harsh conditions and temperatures of winter. In the foreground, three hunters are depicted returning from a hunting expedition with only a fox, to show for their effort.

On Tuesday, Graham Hancock will launch his new book, America Before, in which the alternative history author will claim that human beings have been in the Americas for 130,000 years—a claim he says "rewrites prehistory." He will base this claim on the so-called Cerutti Mastodon. In 2017, a report in Nature alleged that the bones, found near San Diego, showed evidence that they had been ...

Robert Frost was born in San Francisco, but his family moved to Lawrence, Massachusetts, in 1884 following his father's death. The move was actually a return, for Frost's ancestors were originally New Englanders, and Frost became famous for his poetry's engagement with New England locales, identities, and themes.
