The Continuous Conversion is a sequel, of sorts, to The Continuous Atonement, though they need not be read in order. There is little new here, but that is not why I read these books -- there is nothing fundamentally new in the gospel, either, but like most people, I need frequent reminders, refocusing, redirection, and a broadening of my vision and understanding.

The Continuous Conversion Quotes (showing 1-1 of 1) "Sacrifice is not the price we pay to earn the celestial kingdom; it is the essence of the celestial kingdom. Testimony is not the word that gets us through the gates; it is the language spoken inside. Charity is not an audition piece for the heavenly choir; it is the celestial music.

The Continuous Conversion Quotes by Brad Wilcox

Just because we have responded properly in the past is no guarantee that we will do so again. The response of the natural to the spiritual should be continuous conversion, but this is where we so often refuse to be obedient. No matter what our situation is, the Spirit of God remains unchanged and His salvation unaltered.
