Tree of Codes Quotes by Jonathan Safran Foer

The jackets of Jonathan Safran Foer's books ("Everything Is Illuminated," "Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close," "Eating Animals"), designed by John Gray, helped set off a revival in hand-lettering. Graphic-design quirks have also figured in each of Foer's narratives. But his latest book, "Tree of Codes," takes the integration of writing and design to a new level.

Tree of Codes by Jonathan Safran Foer

Jonathan Safran Foer has yet to disappoint me. Everything is Illuminated has remained my favorite novel for the past several years and it is great to see him branch out and expand his style. This novel was written by blacking out words from a novel written by a Jewish artist who died an uncommon death during the Holocaust.
