Community Reviews. the doom machine, by MARK TEAGUE was an interesting book for today's youth- as well as people, such as myself to pass the time away. It wasn't anything magical so I didn't give it a five star. But it was an interesting play on words. I took lots of sticky notes like my children do in school.

Mark Teague - Wikipedia

A small band of more-or-less ordinary Earth humans takes on a galactic empire in Teague's first full-blown novel (Funny Farm, 2009, etc.). When the Dimensional Field Stabilizer that Uncle Bud has cooked up in his small-town garage draws a flying saucer full of piratical, spiderlike skreeps, young Jack Creedle and a handful of other residents and passersby suddenly find themselves captives ...
