I feel as though The Sheik's Defiant Fiancée is a pulp novel whose intended audience is men from the late 50's. It's not a question of the Sheik being misogynistic - because he is, it's more about how namby pamby the Fiancée is.

The Sheik's Defiant Fiancée Quotes. His body was already hardening just at the thought of getting this beauty naked in his bedroom, but he didn't want a frightened lover. He wanted someone with her passion and heat. Hopefully, she had the same fire about making love as he suspected she had regarding social and political issues. " — Elizabeth Lennox , The Sheik's Defiant Fiancée.
