Community Reviews. Gunnar Huttunen, ex-Finnish soldier of the recent Second World War, wants nothing more than to establish himself once again as a miller in northern part of the country. With the recent translation of The Howling Miller, the English speaking world at last can read the work of Finland's most important novelist, Arto Paasilinna.

The Howling Miller by Arto Paasilinna - Goodreads

Arto Paasilinna. The literary folk tale is on precarious ground. The extraordinary ending of The Howling Miller, which only some acceptance of the supernatural can make convincing, will satisfy the fantasy-lover, but the two seminally important setpieces (...) suffer from a lack of social verisimilitude." - Paul Binding, Times Literary Supplement.
