Chef and Owner Michelle Vernier, a graduate of The Culinary Institute of America with over 18 years of fine dining pastry and bakery experience, wanted to recreate her family's Italian salsamentaria (delicatessen) – a neighborhood shop where you can stop for a morning espresso, a freshly baked pastry, a glass of wine and a prosciutto sandwich, or ...

About | Portland, OR | Bellas Italian Bakery

The Girl in the Italian Bakery has very little to do with Italian bakeries or the girls who work in them. It is about Lawrence, Massachusetts. More specifically it is about the life of Kenneth Tingle growing up in Lawrence. Lawrence is and was a tough, hard scrabble, industrial mill town. Its most outstanding quality was and is poverty.

I grew up with the Grants' kids, so it's hard for me to bag on Grants Bakery - but I'd say they have amazing confections and that you should stick to Italian Bakery for your savory pies. I just love that this place exists. It's truly a cultural gem, and everything I've had from the Italian Bakery has been outstanding.
