The Shadow Club by Neal Shusterman was a very good book that I enjoyed reading. There is one thing for sure, no one likes to be second best I know I don't! The second bests get together and make a club called the Shadow Club so they can pull pranks on the unbeatables. Jared and Cheryl are the leaders of the club.

The Shadow Club starts simply enough: the kids who are tired of being second-best get together and, for the first time, talk about how they feel. But soon the members decide to play practical jokes on the first-place winners they envy, and things begin to spin dangerously out of control. "This is a provocative novel . . .

For Jared and Cheryl, nothing is worse than coming in second. Their idea to form a club of second-best kids seems harmless at first. But when the Shadow Club members start playing anonymous practical jokes on each other's rivals, things quickly spiral out of control, and innocent people get hurt. This chilling page-turner about the effects of underlying resentment on a high school population ...
