Reading For Fun: Review: The Everafter by Amy Huntley

The Everafter is a one of a kind, luminous debut. Amy Huntley's imagined abstract after world--what it's like and how it works--is wonderfully wrought and keenly described. With great feeling and honesty, Huntley carefully peels back each layer of Maddie's life, exploring her character, and how each person she knew had an effect on her life.

The Everafter - Book Review - Common Sense Media

8 of 10: The Everafter is just the kind of teen book I like. A quick read, a sweet romance, a little mystery, and a strong premise. Perfect for a snow day. The Morris Award short list came out a few weeks ago – five young adult books by first-time authors. Last year, I read ... Read More about The Everafter by Amy Huntley
