I named my group Fat Girls Hiking because I identify as a fat girl. It's pretty subversive and radical to use the word fat in a positive way, and this label is also bucking the traditional idea of what a fat girl is capable of. Calling it Fat Girls Hiking is a rebellious act in itself, even though that's exactly what we are.

1. It's okay to like how you look. If Freddy Mercury is going to teach you anything in life, let it be this: Fat bottomed girls really do make the rockin' world go round. I get more positive attention for my body than negative attention because men are all kinds of creepy, which brings me to my next point. 2.
