The original review can be found at The Founding Fields, here. Shadowhawk reviews the third Horus Heresy anthology, a collection of four novellas focused exclusively on a Primarch: Fulgrim, Ferrus Manus, Lion El'Jonson and Alpharius. "Some of the best Black Library authors writing some of its best fiction, The Primarchs is an absolute must-read because...

review 1: Let me say that I am consciously making an effort to write reviews that are, well, actually useful. Normally I don't either because I'm tired when I do (usually the reason) or I'm in a hurry. This time, I'll try to make one that will actually help someone out. I have to say that I am not as big of a fan of the short story collections as most other people are.
