The coach came into full view. Black, with its wheels and points picked out in gold, it bore the crest of the Duke of Kilmorgan on the door—a stag surrounded by curlicues and words Fellows didn't understand. Lloyd's father, Daniel Malcolm Mackenzie, was the thirteenth duke in the Scottish line and the first in the English line.

The Untamed Mackenzie starts off with a bang, or rather a drop, as an unwanted suitor falls dead at our illustrious heroine's feet mere pages into the story. This rather unusual beginning fits the Mackenzies & McBrides series, as none of the assorted family members (related by blood or marriage) can be described as anything but unique.
