Way too basic to be "The only Astrology Book" you'll ever need. I have several other books that offer much more information and are still an easy read for a novice. Just disappointed there was so much bad generalizing, way to much importance on Sun sign, and breezed over pretty important stuff, if it mentions it at all. That said, if you're only interested in basics and are new, this book may be for you.

However, the author's direct and simple style is commendable, making this book a decent choice for beginners. While it's not a thorough exploration of Astrology (the subject is so vast that no book could possibly be the "only" book you'll need), this book gives a decent foundation from which to begin a study of Astrology.
