At the end, it seems true the story about The Hunter of the Dark. The St. John's Roman Catholic Church was placed at a corner... the Lovecraft's one was surrounded by a convoluted mess of buildings. I mean, the route Blake took in the story to reach it, was almost like to get to the center of a maze, with all the dark and chilling sensations that such an adventure carries with it. Maybe I'm wrong, or the neighborhood has changed to be literally unrecognizable.
