Mark Smylie (Author of The Barrow) - Goodreads

The Barrow is intended as a stand-alone prequel to Smylie's series The Book of Dooms, which follows the adventures of Artesia, Stjepan Black-Heart's sister. I haven't read any of the Artesia material, so I'm a good test case for whether The Barrow can actually stand alone as a story for readers to whom Smylie's Known World is unknown.

Grimdark Reader: Review of The Barrow by Mark Smylie

Has The Barrow turned you off from other books in this genre? No, it has turned me away from Mark Smylie. If this book were a movie would you go see it? No, see above zombie scene as one reason. Any additional comments? I feel this book would lose about 5 to 6 hours if the author spent less time describing peoples privates and how to fit them to.
