The Gospel According to Job by Mike Mason - Goodreads

The Gospel According to Job: Job 9:32-35. But to say that Job has an understanding that this arbiter must be something beyond a plain human being seems textually warranted. And of course, we know that as revelation progressed, the identity of this arbiter would be revealed in the person of Jesus Christ as we hear the apostle Paul saying,...

The Gospel According to Job: Job 9:32-35 - The Two Cities

Job was not so fortunate in this matter because his group of friends ended up criticizing and condemning him in lieu of encouragement. But instead of offering a defense to his friends, Job offered up his defense to God. In turn, he revealed what a majestic, holy, and all-powerful God that he served then—and that we still serve today. Job 8:1-9:35.
