The Case Of Comrade Tulayev

In The Case of Comrade Tulayev, Serge accomplished everything that Koestler did, and perhaps more. Upon discovering Serge's novel, it's hard for the reader to resist the urge to dismiss Koestler's. Susan Sontag, in a way, falls prey to this urge in the introduction to this introduction.

The Case of Comrade Tulayev by Victor Serge - Goodreads

The Case of Comrade Tulayev is gritty and rough, saturated in the squalor of Moscow life; but it also pulses with lyrical flights that take us up into the stars, which represent for Serge the regenerative, transformative moments the History promises but has yet to deliver.

The Case of Comrade Tulayev (New York Review Books ...

Victor Serge's The Case of Comrade Tulayev is a vivid study of the great purges and the workings of Stalin's security system. It is also, despite a structure in which the eight protagonists interact with the same minor characters rather than with one another, a remarkably effective novel.

The Case of Comrade Tulayev (Victor Serge) - book review

Run over by history. But The Case of Comrade Tulayev is one of the great 20th-century Russian novels, important not only in its subject matter but in its style. Serge may have been a man of extremely uncommon principle, and a fully fledged man of action, but he was also a sensitive and well-read literary man, alive not only to Russian literary...

The case of Comrade Tulayev, a novel

The Case of Comrade Tulayev mirrors in some respects the murder of Sergei Kirov that set off Stalin's first great purge beginning in 1934. The story begins with the almost accidental murder of a leading member of the Central Committee, Comrade Tulayev by a disaffected clerk.

The Case of Comrade Tulayev book by Victor Serge

I hate to spoil the love in but The Case of Comrade Tulayev didn't really work for me. The book might as well be a collection of short stories of individuals affected by the murder of Tulayev. Some of the characters featured in their respective chapters are interesting but many are pretty mundane.
