I meet many writers who ask (essentially), "Read my writing and tell me if I should keep trying." I have a response to that you can read here, but I also empathize if you're looking for some sign you're not completely hopeless. It's tough to continue doing something when you receive no recognition or encouragement for it.

I'm teaching my daughter to read CVC words, so I created these simple worksheets as a way to get extra practice. Since she is only in preschool, she does these worksheets with me, and only after we've done a more hands-on blending activity. I cut out the words at the bottom of each page (of course, she could do this herself, but since I knew the activity would be challenging I wanted to ...
