Book Summary. The Vanishing of Katharina Linden is an unforgettable debut - at once chilling and endearing, haunting and richly insightful - the story of one girl's big heart and even bigger imagination, and of a world full of mystery, good, and evil. It isn't ten-year-old Pia's fault that her grandmother dies in a freak accident.

Summary and reviews of The Vanishing of Katharina Linden ...

The Vanishing of Katharina Linden. From a festive family dinner that goes bizarrely and horribly wrong via the spiteful minutiae of changing playground alliances, to the full-on bravura of the fist-in-mouth climax, this is a feast of treats and creeps. The excellent writing, and the eschewing of anything remotely winsome or mawkish, make this an eerily subtle literary page-turner.
