This is one of the most beautiful Angel's I have bought. A friend of my lost her husband and this was a gift to her. She put it in her house next to her husbands picture, she didn't want to put it outside because she didn't want it to get messed up. She loves Angel's so she was really surprised when I gave it to her, she said it was one of the most beautiful gifts she received.

Guilt is among the most difficult, common and initial feelings following the loss of an animal companion. Instead of remembering all we contributed in love and quality to our friend's life, we focus on self-criticism and condemnation – the time we were too tired for one last walk, the time the demands of life left our sentient being with little attention, the time we went on a vacation or ...
