I’ve wondered similarly about pro-lifers – if they really believe that abortion is murder, why do so many of them choose to protest peacefully and non-violently? One way to deal with this may be to adopt the deontological stance of considering certain actions intrinsically evil (as in Catholicism), but in that case you can't justify the death penalty or even basic stuff like self-defense.

Thomas Paine Common Sense [1776] Introduction. Perhaps the sentiments contained in the following pages, are not yet sufficiently fashionable to procure them general favor; a long habit of not thinking a thing wrong, gives it a superficial appearance of being right, and raises at first a formidable outcry in defence of custom. But tumult soon subsides.
