Last month I posted my Quick and Comfy Crochet Scarf Pattern for the Lion Brand #scarfie project. I absolutely love wearing it every chance I get and have had a great response from my readers as well. And I also received a bunch of requests from knitters to post a knit option as well. So back to the drawing board I went and worked up a knit version.

Introduction. This blanket pattern, designed by Teresa Carter of DeBrosse, is made by arm-knitting: a technique which uses the knitter's arms instead of needles. When arm-knitting, choose yarn in a size of 6 or "super bulky." Knitters can decide the number of skeins they want to use based on desired thickness and length.
