Theocracy is a form of government in which a religious institution is the source from which all authority derives. The Oxford English Dictionary defines it as "a system of government in which priests rule in the name of God or a god.". An ecclesiocracy is a situation where the religious leaders assume a leading role in the state, but do not claim that they are instruments of divine revelation ...

A state religion (also called an established religion or official religion) is a religious body or creed officially endorsed by the state. A state with an official religion, while not secular, is not necessarily a theocracy, a country whose rulers have both secular and spiritual authority. State religions are official or government-sanctioned establishments of a religion, but the state does not ...
