"Have a great summer, sweet thing," she said with a wink before walking away, brown hair swishing. I rolled my eyes as Megan laughed at my disgusted expression and a few minutes later, we were so driving out of that place. "Swearing off girls for the summer, that's my goal this year," I said as I grabbed a treat bag from the back.

"How are things with you and Porsche going at the moment?" Hillary asked when we had eventually calmed down and decided to go back in together, only deeper in. "Pretty good actually, we haven't been fighting as much as I thought we would and it was kinda fun chasing her for my sandals," I answered with a smile, trying not to laugh as I thought back to the unexpected moment.
