In this show (as in all the shows I've done), I gain so much from having an audience. Each night, their reactions — their gasps and sobs, their laughter and deep silences — teach me more about this story we're sharing. Their presence is a gift, and hearing their reflections and insights afterward is humbling.

After reading an article about the Smart Meters I looked into whether they were coming to our town and sure enough they were. I called FP&L to let them know I do not want this on my house as I am a brain tumor patient and after researching these I come to understand they are a potential health hazard.
