This is the water is the most unique book I have read so far this year. The author took some HUGE risks with her writing style as it is just so different to every other book out there and I think those risks mostly paid off. I can say for sure that this is a book that I will remember. First Line of This is the water by Yannick Murphy:

Many end up in our oceans, polluting the water and harming sea life. We think plastic has got to go.

And while reusable bottles and tap water are the best option, the reality is that bottled water isn't going anywhere. That's why we're bringing you deliciously fresh water in eco-friendly aluminum bottles and cans.

The Call by Yannick Murphy was actually one of my absolute favorite books of the year in 2011, so I had high hopes. This is the Water is a book with characters involved in a private swim team. One of the swimmers is murdered, one of the parents thinks her husband is having an affair, another finds herself attracted to someone else's husband.
