The Trees by Philip Larkin is a three-stanza poem with an ABBA rhyme scheme and a confused tone that shifts through a series of ideas from the poem's beginning to its end. While it is grounded in the notions of nature and the life of "trees," reactions to the given observations are numerous, and Larkin does not hesitate to take the reader on his journey through each of those reactions.

One of the few entirely honest people on Fox or any other station. It would be a shame to fire a rare person like her. Genuine news with no holds barred. When you listen to her and others on Fox and OAN you get real news not fake news. Whenever you listen to the other news (that's if you can actually bear hear that liberal garbage) you can be sure to be totally misled by their lies.
