The Sandcastle is, in comparison to most of Murdoch's work, a surprisingly conventional story. Her sharp characters and dialogue, and a bit of philosophizing, clearly mark it as her work, but the story itself is rather simple -- though there are a few odd embellishments (such as a touch of witchcraft -- excused in part by it being fourteen-year-old...

The Sandcastle - Iris Murdoch - Complete Review

Iris Murdoch – The Sandcastle. The Sandcastle begins with a fractious dialogue between Mor (the main character) and his wife Nan. It becomes clear within only a few pages that this kind of antagonistic exchange is common between them. In the middle of the discussion, Mor makes a reference to their dead dog, seemingly out of the blue.
