Stanley Kunitz quotes (showing 1-30 of 36) "Some poems present themselves as cliffs that need to be climbed. Others are so defensive that when you approach their enclosure you half expect to be met by a snarling dog at the gate. Still others want to smother you with their sticky charms." But that was in another year.

Stanley Kunitz Quotes (Author of The Collected Poems)

Stanley Kunitz's poems, written over his long life and marriage, show a deep sensitivity to landscape and to human relationships. He is one of the late twentieth century's most important poets; his work is lyrical, humane and affirmative, but never artificially sweet. This is an important collection by one of our major poets.
