Thwonk - Review | The Novel World

A.J. McCreary, 17, lives for two things: her photography and her as-yet unrequited love for class hunk Peter Terris. The former is suffering from the latter and A.J. is mired in a deep, very funny funk when a love-worn, mournful but supremely helpful cupid named Jonathan appears and offers her academic, artistic, or romantic success (or at least, her idea of romantic success).
