The Island by Jen Minkman. This was a strange read, and it had a lot of star wars references - I didn't realise it was a fan fic? I am not a lover of star wars to begin with, and think this could have been a much better story without the references to it, the fact they call their book that is kinda like the bible - the Star Wars Notebook was laughable!

According to the internet, Jen Minkman has been self-publishing since 2012. The first installment of The Island was published in 2013. Bloody Hell. Minkman has yet to disappoint me. Before I go too much into the review, I feel like I need to put it out there that this isn't a re-telling of The Island, but the stories do match up towards the end.
